FORREST AND KILPATRICK—SPICY CORRESPONDENCE.

As the report of General Kilpatrick's speech to the Boys in Blue, (in which he charges Gen. Forrest with abominable cruelties at Fort Pillow,) first appeared in the Register, we are permitted to publish the following correspondence, which is probably the closing scene of the incidents growing out of the false accusation:

HARTFORD, CONN., October 30, 1868.—Gen. B. R. Shackelford, New Haven, Conn.: General: In reply to Forrest's recent letter to you, I am authorized by Gen. Kilpatrick to say that since officers of the United States army who were present at the investigation of the Fort Pillow massacre, the testimony of hundreds of witnesses there taken, and the report of the Congressional Committee which conducted that investigation, have not only confirmed his (Kilpatrick's) statements on that subject, but have given additional and more shocking details of Forrest's inhuman conduct at Fort Pillow, Gen. Kilpatrick has nothing to communicate either to Forrest or Basil Duke, except to reiterate his denunciations of Forrest's unparalleled atrocities.

I am, very respectfully, &c.,
E. W. WHITAKER.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 6th, 1868.—General E. W. Whitaker, President of Central Grant Club, Hartford, Ct.:—General:—Your note of the 2d inst., in which you say "in behalf of General Kilpatrick, that since officers of the United States army, who were present at the investigation into the charges against Forrest, have not only confirmed General Kilpatrick's statements on that subject, but have given additional and more shocking details," &c., is before me; and in reply, I will state what every intelligent man in this country knows to be true, that the so-called "investigation," to which you allude, was a one-sided Radical affair, intended to intensify the bitter feeling then existing, both North and South, and to make capital in the then approaching elections.

The few soldiers, black and white, who gave evidence in that farce, misnamed "investigation," had not recovered from the fright they received in the Fort Pillow fight, and knew nothing of the fate of the missing men, who were taken prisoners and afterwards exchanged—hence the wily and unscrupulous chairman of that so-called "investigating committee" easily filled the vacuum in their distorted imaginations, by suggestions which any shrewd lawyer can make in asking "leading questions," that those missing men were "slaughtered, nailed to fences and burned to death," &c.

The exercise of a little common sense, sir, would teach any man that were there the least vestige of truth in any of those infamous and slanderous charges against Gen. Forrest, no power on earth could have saved him from the fate of Captain Henry Wirz, and none should know this fact better than Gen. Kilpatrick himself.

It is a well-known fact that Gen. Forrest has repeatedly demanded a court of inquiry into these charges, to which demand the "powers that be" have made no response.

Since the smoke of battle has cleared away, the excitement allayed, and the combatants again in friendly communication with each other, the truth could be more readily and more accurately arrived at than when the confusion incident to war was at its zenith. Then why has he been refused this inquiry? Are the Radical authorities afraid of the development of such an inquiry, fairly conducted? General Forrest and his friends deny the truth of those charges, and all law and equity concedes man innocent until proved guilty.

You say "General Kilpatrick has nothing to do with either Forrest or Basil Duke, except to reiterate his denunciations of Forrest's unparalleled atrocities." If Gen. Kilpatrick is not utterly lost to all sense of honor, sir, he will hold you responsible for placing him in such an equivocal position. A distance of 500 miles from General Forrest evidently makes the valiant Kilpatrick feel very brave. I believe, sir, that distance has that influence with all cowards and braggarts—hence he "reiterates his denunciations, &c." and seems to forget that he has been publicly denounced as "a blackguard, a liar, a scoundrel and a poltroon," by this gentleman, with whom you say he "has nothing to do." He is evidently a man of "easy courage and flinty cheek."

If you are the champion of Gen. Kilpatrick and authorized to act for him in this affair with General Forrest, I would very respectfully suggest that General Basil W. Duke, of Louisville, Ky., is the proper party to address and not myself.

I am, very respectfully,
H. K. SHACKELFORD.

THE ALABAMA ELECTION—THE NEGROES.—But three or four of the negro counties have polled a full negro vote for Grant. In Montgomery, Dallas, and Perry alone, of the counties we have heard from, has the negro vote kept pace with their registration of last year. In other large counties the negro vote has fallen off largely, and some counties having negro majorities have gone Democratic. Thus Lowndes, with nearly 3,000 negro majority, gives only 1,900 majority for Grant. Chambers, in which the negroes have a small majority, goes Democratic by 300 and more. In Russell and Lee united, where the negroes have nearly 2,000 majority, Grant gets only 600 majority. In Madison county, where the negroes have a few hundred majority in numbers, the Democrats get 700 majority. In Mobile county, where the negroes had last year a registered majority, the Democrats get about 1,400 majority; and so on throughout the counties where the negroes have not been drilled and dragooned as in Montgomery and Dallas.—Montgomery Mail, Nov. 7th.

WHEELBARROW BETS.—Market Street, at Wilmington, Delaware, was the theatre of two ridiculous scenes on Monday afternoon, both connected with the late election. In compliance with the terms of a bet on Grant and Seymour, George W. Kennedy, a Democrat, wheeled Jas. S. Heal, a Republican, (proprietor of the "Mount Vernon Hotel,") up Market Street from Second to Brandywine bridge. Kennedy bet that Seymour would be elected. The people manifested less interest in it than they would have done had not their attention been mainly turned to the next wheeling affair. Heal, however, looked as though he enjoyed the ride, which is more than we can say of the man who was wheeling him, who went right ahead and greeted no one.

The other bet, the one in which the public interest was manifested, was that between Thos. M. Culbert, hatter, and Washington Cox, the well known mason and builder. Both are republicans, and as to their party carrying New Castle county, made a bet, Culbert betting that the republicans would carry it, and Cox that the democrats would. The terms of the bet were that the loser was to wheel the winner in a wheelbarrow from Front street to Tenth, up Market. At each corner the barrow was to stop and the man inside was to take up a collection for the benefit of the Home for Friendless Children. Of course Culbert lost the bet.

The parties most concerned were willing to do the thing with as little parade as possible, but some of their friends kindly contributed a sum sufficient to secure a bellman to announce their coming, and to procure the Mount Vernon Cornet Band (colored) to precede them. At about half past two the novel procession started, the band performing patriotic airs, and an immense crowd thronging the sidewalks and filling up the middle of the street. A large number of police surrounded the barrow, to give the betters freedom of movement. At each corner they stopped, and the band played while Mr. Cox went around with his contribution box, apparently receiving donations on every hand. Having received his money he returned to the barrow, took his seat, and Mr. Culbert grasped the handles for another square's march. The amount collected was $106 30.—Wilmington Commercial.

WHEREAS, ERASTUS H. RAY, AND Christiana D. Ray, his wife, on the 9th day of June A. D., 1868, made and executed a mortgage to Robert G. Lewis to secure the sum of two thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty cents, ($2,279.40,) payable to A. T. Stewart & Co., of the City of New York, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Wake County, on the 11th day of June, 1868, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in Book 26, page 104, and the above sum of $2,279.40 principal, and eighteen dollars and twenty-four cents, ($18.24,) interest, is due on said mortgage on the 27th day of October—the day of the first publication of this notice; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, by virtue of the power contained in the mortgage; which sale will be made by the subscriber, at public Auction, at the Court House door, in the City of Raleigh, on the 18th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Adams, and described in said Adams' deed as lot No. 130 in plan of said City, upon which there is a Brick House erected; being 39 feet 7 inches East and West, and fronting on Wilmington Street 28 feet, with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging; subject, however, to a mortgage heretofore executed to B. F. Moore, for the sum of one thousand dollars and interest.

W. Vass and W. D. Johnson of Thomas Bell, and by them conveyed on first October, 1862, to E. H. Ray, the latter deed registered in Register's office of Wake County, Book No. 23, page 741.

Also a tract of Land lying in the County of Wake adjoining the lands of W. H. Cuninggim, the late Wm. Hill, and others, bought by said E. H. Ray of John Ray, June 21st, 1867, and containing about 71 acres.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body convenes, to-day, in the Capitol. At the present writing, the number of members in this city hardly justifies the expectation of a quorum, this morning, though there is ample time for a quorum to arrive.

The condition of the Treasury, we judge, as well as the poverty of the people, make it of the first importance, that the General Assembly should enter upon a prudent and wise course of legislation looking to the general quiet and prosperity of the people. The amount of labor required demands a close attention to business, and the pecuniary affairs of the people require a continuance of the session no longer than is absolutely necessary. If the majority choose,—there being no elections to make, and no party ends to secure that we can see,—the session should be one of business. Partisan legislation is not needed, and, we trust, will not be attempted.

The revision and adoption of the laws, as codified by the Code Commission as far as they have gone, will require care, but need not consume much time. It is understood that propositions will be made for new works of internal improvement and the increase of the State debt. What those propositions will be, we have not learned, specifically. The plan of Public Schools will be submitted, we presume, which will require deliberation and wise legislation. The adjustment of the criminal law and our Court system to the new order of things, is a matter of great importance. The execution of the law and the preservation of order, by the civil power, will be easily accomplished, if proper regard is had to the real condition and wants of the people. The military rule is legally at an end; let our legislators make it really and substantially so, trusting as much as possible to the peaceable disposition of the people and their love and veneration for civil law. We hope that Gov. Holden, in his message, will exhibit the proper tone, and show by his recommendations, the spirit of conciliation and kindness which propriety, justice and magnanimity dictate. All good men, who love peace and seek the prosperity of the State, must deprecate and deplore the bad temper still exhibited by the organ of his party.

The proper organization of the Militia requires the adoption simply of the old laws of the State, with such amendments as the Federal laws and Constitution require. The law passed, at the last session, in regard to the militia, the so-called militia or police force, should be abrogated. It is not only unnecessary, but will be found hurtful to peace and good order, when put into operation. The sooner society and the State return to their old habits, the better. This, we are sure, is the general wish of the people, and the general observance of law, and the quiet which prevails, prove it.

Our opponents speak of hostility to the government, of the desire and purpose of the people to oppose improperly the present regime. We have given this charge a flat contradiction. The opposition of the people is peaceful, and perfectly consistent with the simple right of freedom of opinion, freedom of speech and freedom of the press, which are still pledged to them by our organic law. Do the opposition hope to force all to think alike, to speak alike, or to agree to embrace principles and measures, which they believe to be wrong and unjust and opposed to peace and prosperity?—What folly!

And yet their course simply amounts to this. Without an utter change in the mental, physical and moral attributes of the people, the assimilation to unity, which the Radicals insist upon, is a MORAL IMPOSSIBILITY. We say that the Democrats desire nothing but peace, and intend nothing else.—The Radicals will have it that we mean war. Let the facts and time prove which is right.

THE "NEW REBELLION" ENDED.

Greeley, after having manufactured a furious "Rebellion" in the South to fire the Northern heart, now that the elections are over very appropriately announces that the "Rebellion" is closed. Hear the honest man:

"Gen. Grant's election was flashed over the country barely one week ago. Its calming, soothing influence is already felt throughout the long-distracted, desolated South. Riots and murders are no longer the order of the day."

Nothing could more forcibly illustrate, than this announcement of the Tribune, the infamous policy of misrepresentation of the South which was adopted by the Radical party, during the late campaign.

Nearly all of riot and disorder that there have been in the South has been the work of Radical incendiaries—either fanatics or designing scoundrels. The present importation of arms into this State, by the "Governor," is a singular commentary upon Greeley's text.

The report of Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy, has been completed and placed in the hands of the Public Printer. This is the first report of any Cabinet officer yet completed.

"THE DUTY BEFORE US."

The Puritans fled from persecution in the old country and came to the wilds of America to enjoy "freedom of conscience"—which turned out to mean "freedom" to burn women for witches, and to kill, with faggot and sword, all who ventured to differ from them in religious opinion. Your Radical of the present day is a faithful imitator of the Puritanic model. He professes only to desire freedom of opinion, but what he means is the crushing out of all opinion that does not square with his own, intolerance towards every man, woman and child, who do not bow the knee to his debased idols, and extermination for all who dare to reject his prostituted shibboleths. Protestations, upon the part of others, of a desire to have amicable disagreements—to have "Peace," though differing in sentiment,—are scouted by these foul hybrids as the emanations of "disloyalty." They will not be content, unless every man shall get down into the mud and filth in which they wallow, with a swinal complacency and enjoyment, and swear that he is having "a good time."

Such is the spirit in which all the conservative and law-loving professions of the Democratic press in the South have been received, on the part of the mongrels, since the result of the late election. These creatures ring the changes on "Peace," and when we meet them on that ground, and say, "Yes; Peace is what we want," they ring other changes on "rebel" and "disloyal," with a contemptible and disgusting iteration, that proves the hollowness of their professions. When we express the purpose of the Democratic party to acquiesce gracefully and manfully in the results of the election, and to make, as far as we can, the best for the country out of a bad case, we are sneered at and twitted with our impotency to do otherwise than submit. When we accord to Gen. Grant the meed of patriotism and of freedom from vindictiveness, we are accused of toadyism and of a weak effort to "Johnsonize" him. These poor victims of malignant passions,—eaten up with hate and uncharitableness for all that is decent and reputable,—cannot understand or appreciate, perhaps, how a man can be free from the same evil passions by which they are devoured.

In just such a spirit as that to which we have referred, has our recent article on the "Duty before us" been received, we learn, by the senseless scribblers for the Human Insulting paper in this city, for no other reason, it seems, than because we counsel our people, while pursuing the paths of material industry and peaceful avocation, not to let go their contempt for scallawags and carpet-bag adventurers. The advice we gave was really superfluous. Why, "contemptible" is written all over most of them and people can but see it. The heights of ill-gotten power only make the brand the more prominent and glaring.

We repeat our counsel: A truce, for a season, and a long season, to national politics. Let us give the incoming Federal administration a fair trial and a manly support in all that it does well—hoping that it will not do ill. "Let us watch the heavens and work the earth, and, ere long, we shall see the gray dawn creeping up the Eastern sky."

PROPOSED SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.—It is reported from Washington, and with an air of authority, that one of the first measures that will be introduced, on the reassembling of Congress, in December, will be a constitutional amendment providing for the regulation of suffrage throughout the United States—that such a bill will go through without a doubt, and that the Legislatures of two thirds of the States (three-fourths are wanted) being Republican, the amendment will be ratified and the question of suffrage settled forever. We are further informed that a prominent member of Congress has prepared such an amendment in the form of a bill, and that he will introduce it on the first day of the session.

What form of suffrage is contemplated in this amendment we are left to conjecture. It is hinted that it will go beyond Greeley's plan of "universal amnesty and impartial suffrage," but will probably be limited to "manhood suffrage," the plan of Wendell Phillips.

It remains to be seen how Ohio, and other States, will relish the chalice which they have commended to our lips.

THE IMMIGRATION MEETING IN GOLDSBORO'.—The last Goldsboro Messenger contains an abstract of the proceedings of the Immigration Meeting which was held in Goldsboro', on Friday. The proceedings, in full, will be published hereafter.

The Hon. W. T. Dortch called the meeting to order, and, on his motion, Dr. S. S. Satchwell was chosen Chairman. Messrs. A. T. Mial, of Wake, and T. A. Granger, of Wayne, were appointed Secretaries.

The meeting was well attended, eleven counties being represented. Its deliberations were marked by the greatest harmony and conducted in a business-like manner.

Not least among the important measures adopted was the appointment of agents for the importation of five hundred laborers from Europe. The agents appointed are Messrs. Atkinson and Trueb, who leave on their mission the first week in December next.

The meeting adjourned to reassemble on Saturday, the 28th. inst., when a permanent organization will be effected.

THE STATE ELECTION.—Scattering returns, mostly unofficial, continue to reach us from various counties in the State. As soon as the official returns are all in,—and they must be in before the first Wednesday in December, upon which day the Electoral College meets,—we will publish a complete tabular statement of the vote of the State. As heretofore stated, Grant's majority will be about ten thousand. We observe that the last Asheville News speaks of the result in the Seventh Congressional District as "doubtful." Our own information leads us to put down Mr. Durham's majority as small, but decided.

THE FLORIDA TROUBLES.

We have been publishing for several days telegrams relating to political troubles in Florida, without understanding a word about them. It was said the Legislature had met, the Governor been impeached and deposed, and the Lieutenant Governor voted into his seat; that the Governor refused to recognize the authority of the Legislature or to surrender his office, and had his Lieutenant indicted. But no intimation of the cause of the troubles was given, and as all the parties were supposed to be "truly loyal," no solution could be conjectured. The New York Times, in the following paragraph, supplies the first explanation we have seen. This has a bad look for "reconstruction":

Dispatch to the New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.

The trouble in Florida between Governor Reed and his opponents has a curious origin. Both factions are Republican; that of Governor Reed is moderate and practical, and looks to putting the party on a basis which will keep it in the ascendancy in the State. The other faction, led by Lieutenant Governor Gleason, Jenkins, and a few others, is composed of a set of hair-brained extremists, who care for nothing but personal gain, and who will kill the party unless they are kicked out of it. When the present government of the State was framed, the Republicans thought they would make a sure thing of it for a number of years at least. They, therefore, provided that the Governor should hold office for six years, and invested him with the appointment of a great many officers, including most of the county officers in the State. It is because Gov. Reed has not used this power in the interests of the extremists that the attempt is now made to impeach him. The Legislature which passed the resolutions had assembled on the 3d, solely for the purpose of choosing Presidential electors, and a quorum was not present when the resolutions were passed. Gov. Reed, of course, resists the illegal and preposterous procedure. Both he and Gleason, the Lieutenant Governor, are originally from Wisconsin. Reed is an old journalist, a man of intellect, ability and experience in public affairs; Gleason, who was a lumberman in Wisconsin, is a man of very ordinary calibre, and would be doing his country and State far better service on his plantation at Indian river catching terrapins than in running an impeachment machine at Tallahassee.

"LET US BE FRIENDS."

Under this caption the Chicago Times, a leading Democratic journal in the Northwest, says:

"In Hartford, Connecticut, the supporters of Mr. Grant celebrated their victory by a torchlight procession. The Democratic club of Hartford joined the procession, bearing a banner with the inscription, 'Let us be friends.'

This is a sentiment that animates, and has always animated, the Democracy in all parts of the country: "Though we differ in our views of policy, let us be friends in supporting the principles that constitute the foundation of our political liberties."

When the civil war was over, the Democracy said to the extremists of all sections, "Let us be friends."

What did the extremists of the North say in reply? They said, "No. Let us continue to be enemies. As for us, we will not shake hands with men who have fought us. We will continue to nurse our hatreds."

There is a passage somewhere in a good book that some men profess great respect for, which tells us that brethren ought to dwell together in unity. The Democracy subscribes to that doctrine heartily; but the Radical extremists repudiate it. The sentiment, they say, is all wrong. Brethren ought to dwell together like cats and dogs, unless the weaker brethren will submit to any wrong that the stronger may choose to put upon them, and to which the stronger, on their part, refuse to submit.

The sentiment of the Hartford Democratic club is the sentiment of three millions of Democratic voters. We desire nothing but the good of our country. It is ours, as well as yours. We must live in it together. We desire to preserve for ourselves and our posterity the liberties it secures. We will presume, until you prove the contrary, that your desires are the same. Let us be friends on this broad national platform. Let us stand together in the jealous guardianship of our liberties. Whoever threatens danger or overthrow to these liberties—be he President or Congressman; be he politician or priest—let us defend them against. We have had war enough. We have had disfranchisement and confiscation enough.—We have had slander and detraction and hatred and revenge enough. We have had misery and death and devastation enough. We have had enmities between us enough. Let us have amnesty for all political offences. Let us be friends."

A SEA MONSTER.

The strange animal killed near Eastport, Maine, has been on exhibition in that city during the past two weeks:

"This animal, part fish and part beast, is over thirty feet in length, and girts twenty-one feet. It has one enormous dorsal fin, two side belly fins, and a broad, shark like tail. About one-third of its length forms its tail. In connection with small fins, it has two huge legs, terminating in web feet. Its mouth makes a line of five or six feet in length, the whole extent of which is set with innumerable small teeth, very much resembling in size and shape the kernel of a species of short pointed pop corn. It has a series of gills, which over-lap each other like the flounces once the style of ladies' dresses. Its immense body, which was estimated to have weighed when captured about eleven tons, has no frame work of bones, its most solid portion consisting of cartilage incapable of preservation. Its skin is dark and tough, like that of the elephant and rhinoceros. There is no record of his species, and to none is it a greater wonder than to naturalists, whose attention is being drawn to it. Among others who have had an opportunity of seeing it is Professor Baird, of the Smithsonian Institution of Washington, who is yet unable to place it in the known list of the animal kingdom. When first discovered it was swimming along leisurely, and when pursued took to the land, and when captured was a hundred and twenty feet above high water mark. Numerous shots were fired at it, but none took effect until the gun was loaded with small spikes, which took effect, striking just above the main fore fin. On analyzing the stomach it contains nothing but vegetable matter, which leads to the conclusion that it subsisted upon vegetables on the bottom of the ocean and shore."

"When," says the Philosopher of [illegible], "Gen. Blair, or any other man, tells us that 'Reconstruction is a failure,' we brand the villain as a malignant and unscrupulous manipulator of facts, and point with pride to Florida."

[From the Mobile Times, [illegible].]

LAPSING INTO BARBARISM.

THE CRIMES OF NEGRO SQUATTERS—A FEARFUL CONDITION OF AFFAIRS IN THE SUBURBS OF MOBILE.

The following letter of Coroner Deschamps, which was yesterday forwarded to Gov. Smith, now in this city, gives a truthful account of the lawlessness of the negroes on the out-skirts of the city. Life and property on the outskirts are insecure, and unless active and speedy means are taken by the proper authorities to check the evil, trouble will undoubtedly ensue. There is a time when patience and forbearance cease to be virtues, and that time has nearly arrived. Depredations upon the property of whites, murders, rapes, and every conceivable species of crime, on the part of the negroes, cannot be longer tolerated. Let the Governor look to it, and look well if he wishes to preserve peace in this community, who, though law abiding, and ardently desiring peace, are firmly determined not to be overrun by barbarous negroes, urged on by carpet baggers, scallawags and renegades:

MOBILE, October 23.

To His Excellency, R. H. Smith,
Governor of Alabama:

I herewith forward to your Excellency a copy of the testimony adduced at the inquest held yesterday afternoon on the body of Archie McLaughlin. Other testimony was offered, but being merely cumulative, was not reduced to writing.

In bringing this murder most foul to your official knowledge, I cannot refrain from representing to your Excellency the terrible state of insecurity, both as to person and property, existing at present in this country, but, more particularly, in and near the suburbs of this city. A few facts plainly stated will enable your Excellency to appreciate, to some extent, the condition of our people.

Crowds of negroes, armed with guns or pistols of all sizes, classes, and character, pour out daily from the city, and spread themselves over the suburban districts, game being their avowed object. I respectfully represent to your Excellency that the only game which is to be found in the open fields and thickly settled districts hunted over by these game stalkers, consists solely of cattle, pigs, and poultry, and even these have now become scarce.

The farms and gardens of our market men and others are daily ravaged, and it is almost impossible for them to carry on their business. A few days ago a negro trundled a wheelbarrow to the vicinity of the city cemetery, killed a cow, skinned and cut off a hind quarter, and with this load trundled back to town, leaving the balance as prey for vultures. So much for property.

On the 21st. ult., a poor widow returning home with a small quantity of meal and bacon, purchased with money obtained from the sale of shingles she had made, in open daylight, yea, at mid-day, on the highway and in full view and in close proximity to houses inhabited by negroes, was robbed and brutally ravished by a gang of several colored men, in the presence of her little son, whom one held. This most shameful outrage took place just outside the city limits, and about a mile east of Eslava's bridge, the scene of the murder of young McLaughlin on the next day.

These and frequent similar outrages have excited the people residing in the vicinity of the place where they were committed to an intense degree. And as a great part of the people living in the Southern and Southwestern portions of Mobile County are compelled to pass by or near Eslava's bridge on their way to and from Mobile, the dread which these deeds have caused is widespread.

It is true that the greater number of the colored people in this county are orderly and well disposed. But there remain hundreds, if not thousands, who, refusing to work, depend for a living solely on what they can beg, find or steal. Of these it is patent that a large number are huddled together, and seize every opportunity to perform the most desperate and lawless acts.—Nor are there any means by which the citizens of Mobile county can throw the shield of safety around their persons or property. Any attempt to do so would be held as an outrage against the manhood rights of the blacks, and be proof positive of the insubordination of the whole race. Yet I may be permitted respectfully to represent that so anomalous and unnatural a state of things can not long exist. The normal condition of man, and the only one long endurable by him, is one of peace and security. War and pillage is the exception, not the rule, and can be endured no longer than the passions can be kept aroused. A state of passive submission opposed by one and the larger class to active and outrageous aggression from another and an inferior class, is an anomaly that can result only from a condition of utter despair that can be but temporary, and sooner or later must give place to sudden and terrible bursts of violence, the natural result of long concentrated and unnatural repressed passion.

In conclusion, permit me to appeal most earnestly, yet respectfully, to your Excellency, as the guardian of the peace and property of the people of Alabama, to inquire into the condition of affairs in this county, and to take such active steps as you may deem best calculated to bring the vile perpetrators of the outrages above set forth to the bar of justice, and by vindicating the majesty of law, repress the reign of lawlessness and terror.

As an officer of the State, I have deemed it my duty to appeal to you officially in this matter, in the firm hope and belief that, by so doing, the safety and welfare of our poor citizens residing beyond the heart of the city of Mobile would be promoted. At the suggestion of persons having the peace of the country at heart, I have consented to allow the immediate publication of this appeal, believing that all classes should know that deeds such as are herein detailed would be brought to the immediate attention of the highest authority. This knowledge, it is believed, may have some influence in deterring others from commission of like outrages.

I have the honor to remain, very respectfully your obedient servant,

JOHN J. DESCHAMPS,
Coroner Mobile County.

MESSRS. J. B. HUNTER & CO.—From reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that this popular and enterprising house has formed business connections with Messrs. We congratulate both parties upon having formed so desirable and honorable a connection, and bespeak for them a trade which we are sure will eventuate in an established trade with any house who may be disposed to encourage energy, ability and worth.—This new arrangement will not interfere with the business of Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., of Portsmouth, but will only act as an auxiliary to them at all times in having advantage of both markets.—Norfolk Journal.

THE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.
Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Messrs. J. B. HUMORS OF RECONSTRUCTION.—Let it not be forgotten that J. P. Cowardin, Esq., of the Richmond (Va.,) Dispatch, will deliver his famous humorous representations of the late Reconstruction Convention of Virginia, and give his life like imitations of different speakers, at Tucker Hall, to-morrow evening. These representations have met with great success wherever produced. Mr. C's talents as a mimic are of the first order, and his burlesques are used as the truthful illustrations of a graver theme.—Let our people hear him. The price of admission is only fifty cents. The Norfolk Journal says that if one has the dyspepsia, Cowardin's lecture will cure him on the spot. Tickets may be obtained at the Bookstore of Messrs. Williams & Lambeth.

METEORIC DISPLAY.—The heavens were the scene of a magnificent meteoric display, between the midnight of Friday and the morning of Saturday. A gentleman counted over a hundred "shooting stars," shortly after midnight, in the course of three or four minutes. About 4 o'clock, A. M., the phenomenon is described, by those who witnessed it, to have been grand. We shall soon have a full description of this wonderful exhibition from the scientific men, who were "on guard" in the Observatories in this country and Europe.

VALUABLE INFORMATION.—We invite attention to the communication of Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., Commission Merchants of Portsmouth, Va., in another column. We are pleased to state that this letter will be followed by others, embracing information on the subject of Axe-Handles, Pick Handles, Last-Blocks, Hubs and Spokes, cultivation and preparation of Broom Corn for market, mode of preparing the various Roots and Barks, &c.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASH BOILER is just the thing. It is the greatest time-saving and labor saving boiler ever invented. The annoyances of wash-day are overcome. It is found to be the only boiler that requires no rubbing, no labor, to cleanse the clothes. It is a household wonder for washing and cleaning all articles of the coarsest or most delicate texture. The statement is corroborated by thousands who have used it. Every family should and will eventually have one. Persons buying this boiler are informed that, if they do not find it exactly as it is represented, the money will be refunded. It has given entire satisfaction, everywhere, and in this city it has been thoroughly tested and with perfect success. Try it. Call at Lougee & Brother's, where it is on exhibition.

CHATHAM RAIL ROAD.—We chronicle an event of much Interest to the people of Raleigh and other points. The first engine of the Chatham Rail Road has reached the city and took its trial trip, on Saturday, on the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, to the perfect satisfaction of the Superintendent, Col. Andrews, and the master machinist, Mr. Gayle,—who pronounce it, in every respect, first class. It was built by Rogers, of New Jersey, weighs 28 tons, and is named after the first President of the Chatham R. R. Co., KEMP P. BATTLE.

AN ATTEMPT was made, a few days since, to fire the residence of the Hon. Wm. M. Cocke, of Asheville. The Mayor of the town has offered $100 reward for the discovery of the incendiary.

INTERVIEW WITH GEN. GRANT.

A correspondent of the New York Herald gives an account of an interview of a number of representatives of the press with General Grant on Tuesday, from which we make the following extract:

"It having been mentioned that he enjoyed a reputation for cautiously avoiding politics, the General replied that it was true he did not like to talk about politics, because that which may be regarded as right and proper in politics to day may be all wrong six months hence, and he thought that politics is a subject about which the least said the better.

In reply to the remark that no President ever entered upon his executive duties with a fairer opportunity to administer the affairs of the country, so as to secure tranquility and prosperity, the General said that it would be his constant care to seek an early restoration of peace and harmony throughout the Union. The successful manner in which the President elect eluded the elaborate reception preparations in this city having been referred to, the General remarked that all such public demonstrations found no favor in his sight. In traveling through the country it frequently happened that such displays were in full operation. In such cases they cannot well be avoided. "But this city," said he, "is my home, and to have glorifications of that kind here would be repugnant to my feelings. Nothing of that kind will be done with my approbation. It had been published that he would hold a public reception at his residence. This was not true.—He had not expressed any intention of doing so. He would be happy to receive all who may wish to favor him with a call, either at his house or at his headquarters, but a public reception at this time did not appear to him as just the proper thing. If they (meaning the political organizations which threatened him with an ovation) wish to hold a jubilee—if the result of the election pleases them—let them parade, fife and drum away; only I hope they will not disturb me, or require me to take any part in the proceedings."

THE ASHEVILLE RIOT.—We copy below, from the last Asheville News, the report of the Coroner's Jury, who were closely confined for several days in examining the case of the death of the negro, who was killed in the riot on the day of the election. It substantially corroborates the statements heretofore published, and establishes the fact, not only that the negroes were the aggressors, but that the Radical civil authorities could have prevented the fatal riot, if they had chosen to do so. The Jury was composed of some of the very best men in the community of Asheville, of both parties, and the investigation was conducted with fairness and impartiality:

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 9, P. M.

The Jury to inquire the cause of the death of James Smith, deceased, find that the said Jas. Smith came to his death, while engaged in a riot at Asheville, N. C., on the afternoon of Tuesday, Nov. 3, 1868, from a pistol shot in the right side of the face, extending into the neck; said shot was probably fired by Milton Ledford, although shots were fired, about the same time, and in the same direction, from pistols in the hands of Jesse Crook, Gaston McDowell, William A. Blair and William Grubbs. The Jury also find that the first stone or missile thrown came from the hands of said James Smith, deceased. The Jury further find that shots were fired, about the same time and in the same direction of the white crowd, from a pistol in the hands of an unknown colored man, and a pistol in the hands of Simon Henry, colored.

The Jury feel it their duty to say that the civil officers neglected to take proper precaution to guard against the occurrence of this riot. We believe, had they so done, it could and would have been prevented.

SOME Democrats having signified their intention to introduce a bill for the restoration of the full privileges of the Presidency to Gen. Grant, the Washington correspondent of the Tribune says it is believed the Republicans will anticipate them, and that an act will pass in December, to take effect from the 4th of March, which will give the new President the full privileges of his office.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—Another importation of Holden's muskets for his "loil" militia arrived on Saturday. "Peace" is upon his lips, while be parades his boxes, filled with arms, through our streets! It is the peace of Joab, who said, "How art thou, my brother?" and stabbed beneath the cover of an embrace!

Valuable Information.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., Nov. 13th, 1868.

Editors Sentinel.—With your permission, we propose to publish, in your paper, a series of useful letters, giving reliable information as to sizes, price, etc., of various kinds of Lumber, with which your section abounds, and which, if prepared according to directions, will be found remunerative.

If we can develop some of the hidden resources of our Southern country, we shall be glad, for there are many within reach which will give profitable employment to those who are disposed to work, and which have not been engaged in, probably, for want of information.

LOCUST SHIP PINS OR NAILS.

For marketable nails, the very best smooth timber is required. Crooked, knarly, knotty, or sap timber will not make good nails. Limbs and branches are good for nothing.

The wood must be cut to work 1½ inches round, and the saleable lengths are 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 33 inches.—Probable price, when wanted, $10 to $15 per M. for the shortest, and up to $35 and $40 for the longest. Persons having the desired Locust timber should make a note of this, and prepare carefully, and cut proportionately more of the short than of the long, as 14 inches is the length most required.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14, P. M.

It is stated, that McCulloch pronounces the Revenue fraud detecting business a humbug and a nuisance.

The 29th. Infantry, which recently left here for Tennessee, has been ordered to Texas.

The following is the reply to a question, where parties have more than five, but under fifty, gallons of whiskey:

OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, D. C., Nov. 14, 1868.

"In answer, I have to say that, while the return called for by section 59 cannot be required from any person who had but 50 gallons or less of distilled spirits in his possession, on the 1st instant, it is, nevertheless, important to the interests of such persons, that their packages of such spirits should be marked and stamped as prescribed in that section; otherwise the spirits, being without either the tax paid stamp, or the stamp for the stock on hand, would be in danger of detention, under section 41, and, perhaps, of seizure and forfeiture, under the provision of section 57, for the forfeiture of all distilled spirits found after thirty days in packages of more than five gallons, without having thereon each mark and stamp required therefor by this act. Section 36 would, in such case, throw the burden of proof on the claimants, and as probable cause for seizure could, doubtless, in most cases be shown to have existed, the expense and trouble to which the owner of the spirits would be subjected before he could recover his property, would generally exceed its value.

It would be well to make this view of the matter known to those in your district, whom it may concern."

It is stated that the Spanish Minister visited Seward, regarding the reported fillibustering movements on Cuba. Seward don't regard the movement of sufficient importance to claim attention in his Department, but, should the emergency arise, movements derogatory to the rights of Spain will be promptly arrested.

There was a fine meteoric display here from midnight to dawn.

VANCE ON THE OLD WHIG PARTY.

"My friends, old line whigs, I like you. I used to believe the old whigs were the salt of the earth, and I am sorter of that notion yet. But the party is dead and buried and the tombstone placed over it, and I don't care about spending the balance of my days mourning at its grave. A sincere old whig, when his party died—if he was true to his principles or his prejudices—would enquire for a party nearest like it. Which is the party? Is it Bill Holden, at the head of 75,000 negroes? A negro boy once caught a large sized cat-fish and, sticking it in the bank, passed up the creek.—Another negro coming along that way, and having a smaller sized fish on his string, swapped cats. After a bit, Jack returned for his fish, and, pulling it out, exclaimed, 'de great Lord, is dis my cat? yes, here's whar I stuck him—but ain't he swunk?' If Henry Clay could rise from the dead and sound the bugle to summon up his party—and then look at Holden and a few half whipped mangy looking fellows at the head of 75,000 negroes, as they cry out—'here's your whig party, Henry Clay!' 'Great God!' would exclaim that statesman, 'how the whig party has shrunk!'"

What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF GUILFORD Superior Court, we will expose to public sale, on the premises, at 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday, the 26th day of November, on a credit of six and twelve months, bond and approved security, that valuable plantation of the late Col. P. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, at Holtsburg, in Davidson County, containing about 180 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said Land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as negro houses, barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 3 acres with two small buildings and Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Holtsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power inexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

We will also sell, at the Court House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent Plantation upon which the late Col. Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5,000 acres, known as the Gaston place, or Beechwood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The lands are of the very finest quality known in the Eastern part of this State, which is famous for its productiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vast marl bed, immense quantities of which Col. Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at, and in inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place, Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1860-'61. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House, is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

Also, the Long Lake Plantation, situated about ten miles from Newbern and three from the Gaston Plantation, containing about 3,700 acres, more or less. It has upon it a large Dwelling House. The lands are of the finest quality and underlaid with marl. A large proportion of this tract is in Timber of the best quality.

Also, the Speight or Cutler tract, immediately opposite Newbern—across the Trent river—(upon which is located James City)—consisting of about 566 acres, more or less. This land is nearly all cleared and in cultivation, and is valuable for being so near the City of Newbern.

Also, 110 Shares of Stock in the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, and 8 shares in the Clermont Bridge Company.

We will sell, on Thursday, 10th of December, in Morehead City, on terms above mentioned, the following City Lots:

In Block 5—Lot No. 9.
" 10 " 5.
" 11 " 15.
" 12 " 2.
" 14 " 7.
" 78 " 9.
" 160 " 13, 14, 15.
" 163 " 1, 2, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16.
" 164 " 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.
" 115 " all the lots.

And an undivided one-fourth interest in a tract of Land about 3 miles from Morehead, on the Railroad and Sound, of about 100 acres, known as Oceana.

Also, an undivided interest in a tract of Land near the town of Newport, in Carteret County, owned by said Evans and J. M. Morehead.

On Thursday, 17th of December, we will sell in Pittsboro', Chatham County, at the Court House, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, the La Grange Lands, consisting of about 2,330 acres, more or less, lying in the County of Chatham, on Deep River—or said Evans' interest in said lands. These lands are very valuable for farming purposes, and contain very extensive Coal beds, some of which have been successfully worked and large quantities of coal taken therefrom. The improvements consist of a good Dwelling House with six rooms, servants' houses, Gin house, Barns, &c.

Also, all Col Evans' Stock in the LaGrange Mining, Manufacturing and Transportation Company.

Also, those valuable Grist and Saw Mills on Deep River known as Evans' Mills which are now in operation. The supply of water is constant, and the Mills are admirably located for an extensive and successful business.

Also, an undivided one-twentieth interest in the Chalmers Plantation.

Also, an undivided one-fourth interest in a Tract of Land in Moore County, on which is a valuable Gold Mine.

Also, an undivided one-fifth interest in the McIver Copper Mine and Land in Chatham County.

Also, a Lot in Carbonton.

A POET'S REASONS.

I sing because I love to sing,
Because instinctive fancies move;
Because it hurts no earthly thing,
Because it pleases some I Love.

Because it cheats night's weary hours,
Because it cheers the brightest day;
Because, like prayer and light and flowers,
It helps me on my heavenly way.

Because with peals of happy words
I would exercise mortal care;
Because a touch of deeper chords
May tune a heart to love and prayer.

Because all sounds of human fate
Within my heart an echo find;
Because what'er is good or great
Lets loose the music of my mind.

Because above the changing skies
The Spirit saith good angels sing;
Because wherever sunshine lies
The woods and waves with music ring.

Because amid earth's Babel noise
All happy things that go or come
Give to their grateful hearts a voice—
Then why should I alone be dumb?

From Hall's Journal of Health.

FIFTEEN FOLLIES.

1. To think the more a man eats, the fatter and stronger he will become.

2. To believe the more hours children study at school the faster they learn.

3. To conclude that if exercise is good for the health, the more violent or exhausting it is the more good is done.

4. To imagine that every hour taken from sleep is an hour gained.

5. To act on the presumption that the smallest room in the house is large enough to sleep in.

6. To argue that whatever remedy causes one to feel immediately better, is good for the system without regard to more ulterior effects. The "soothing syrup," for example, does stop the cough of children, does arrest diarrhœa, only to cause, a little later, alarming convulsions, or the more fatal inflammation on the brain, or water on the brain, or, at least, always protract the disease.

7. To commit an act which is felt in itself to be prejudicial, hoping that some how or other it may be done in your case with impunity.

8. To advise another to take a remedy which you have tried on yourself without making special inquiry whether all the conditions are alike.

9. To eat without an appetite or to continue to eat after it has been satisfied, merely to gratify the taste.

10. To eat a hearty supper for the pleasure experienced during the brief time it is passing down the throat, at the expense of a whole night of disturbed sleep, and a weary waking in the morning.

11. To remove a portion of the covering immediately after exercise, when the most stupid drayman in New York knows that if he does not put a cover on his horse the moment he ceases work in the winter, he will lose him in a few days by pneumonia.

12. To contend that because the dirtiest children in the street or highway are hearty and healthy, therefore it is healthy to be dirty; forgetting that continuous daily exposure to the pure out door air in joyous unrestrained activities, is such a powerful agency for health that those who live thus are well, in spite of rags and filth.

13. To presume to repeat, later in life, without injury, the indiscretions, exposure and intemperance which, in the flush of youth, are practiced with impunity.

14. To believe that warm air is necessarily impure, or that pure, cold air is necessarily more healthy than the confined air of a crowded vehicle; the latter, at most, can only cause fainting and nausea, while entering a conveyance after walking briskly, lowering a window thus while still exposed to a draft, will give a cold infallibly, or an attack of pleurisy or pneumonia, which will cause weeks and months of suffering, if not actual death within four days.

15. To "remember the Sabbath day" by working harder and later on Saturday than any other day in the week, with a view to sleeping late next morning, and staying at home all day to rest, conscience being quieted by the plea of not feeling very well.

DIPTHERIA.

In the Paris Journal des Connaissances Medicales we find an interesting paper, by Dr. Ozenam, on the treatment of diptheria, attended with the formation of adventitious membranes. The specific he uses is bromine, which has an electric action on the pharynx, the velum pendulum and the larynx; so also has bromide of potassium. Three German experimentalists—Frantz, Schmidt, and Taube—were the first to prove that bromine introduced into the respiratory organs caused false membranes to be formed in the larynx of pigeons. From this they concluded, according to the homeopathic principle—similia similibus curantur—that this element would cure croup and membranous diptheria. Dr. Ozenam took up the matter allopathically, and by experiment found that bromine first hardened the adventitious membrane, and then reduced it to dust. This led him to conclude that both the homeopathic and allopathic principles of medicine coincide in certain cases; but letting this question alone, his researches have gone further, and show that bromine destroys contagion as well as chlorine, and prevents the spreading of epidemics.—This fact, of course, became a stepping-stone to using bromine as a curative medicine, and nearly all the cases treated with it have been successful.

As a preservative from epidemic diptheria, Dr. Ozenam administers from ten to twelve drops of bromine in the course of the day, in sugar and water, and in proportion of twenty to fifty gms. of the latter per drop. This liquid solution must be kept in the dark, since light would cause the formation of hydrobromic acid. The vial must be kept well stopped, and its contents must be changed as soon as the light amber color has disappeared. To the patient the solution is administered in drops hourly, in a table-spoonful of sugar and water, so as to give from one to two grammes of the former in the course of twenty-four hours. In the case of croup Dr. Ozenam prescribes fumigations of bromine. A basin with hot water is placed before the patient; a large pinch of bromide of potassium, or else common kitchen salt, is thrown in, and then in the course of five minutes three tea spoonfuls of the above bromided solution are added. The patient inhales the vapor of bromine thus evolved through a glass funnel. By this means our author has cured upwards of one hundred and fifty cases of croup or diphtheria, with but five failures.
